

2011 REDISTRICTING COMMISSION PLAN SUBMISSION PACKET

This Redistricting Commission will accept redistricting plans from individuals and organizations. Complying with each of the requirements below will facilitate the Commission's consideration of the plan.

WHAT IS A PLAN?

A plan is a citywide solution for redistricting all fourteen council districts in a manner that is consistent with the approved Redistricting Guidelines.

CAN I SUBMIT A PLAN FOR JUST PART OF THE CITY?

Yes, you can. Partial plans will be treated as testimony before the Commission and will become part of the Redistricting Commission record, but to be considered as a Plan the submission must include all 14 City Council Districts.

WHAT SHOULD BE INCLUDED WHEN A PLAN IS SUBMITTED?

1. A statement that the submitter of a plan has consulted the approved Redistricting Guidelines before drawing the plan;
2. A written description of how the submitted plan complies with the Redistricting Guidelines;
3. A statistical table showing council district population totals, population deviation by district, and any other relevant demographic information;
4. Name, address and telephone number of submitter;
5. Any attestations of support for the proposed plan from others (optional).
6. The Submission must be signed and dated.

PLAN SUBMISSIONS

To ensure proper handling and review of all plans, submissions should be made to:
