Selection of Three Preferred Plans

Jesse Oliver
Chairman
2021 Redistricting
Commission

Selection of Three Preferred Plans

Phase One of Final Map Selection Process

1. A matrix of all plan submissions previously moved into the inventory by the Commission will be distributed to each Commissioner.
2. Using the matrix/ballot form, each Commissioner may vote for their three preferred plans.
 - Commissioners are not required to vote for 3 plans but may not vote for the same plan more than once.

Selection of Two Preferred Plans

Jesse Oliver
Chairman
2021 Redistricting
Commission

Selection of Two Preferred Plans

Phase Two of Final Map Selection Process

3. Upon compilation of the votes, a matrix/ballot listing the three preferred plans will be provided to each Commissioner.
4. Commissioners will then rank the three plans in their order of preference as numbers 1, 2, and 3 from most preferred to least.
5. The two plans receiving the most number 1 rankings become the top two preferred plans.
 - If only one plan receives number 1 rankings, then it, along with the plan receiving the most number 2 rankings will move forward as the top two preferred plans for further consideration.
